THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MOHD. MAQBOOL DAR): (a) to (e) The Union Home Minister held a high level meeting on 22.1.1996 to review the measures being taken for relocation of specified industries consequent upon the orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. It was in the said meeting decided, inter-alia, to constitute an informal core group of senior officers under the chairmanship of the Chief Secretary, Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi to recommend a suitable action plan for ensuring that interest of workers was safeguarded.

The recommendation of the Core Group were reviewed in a subsequent meeting held on 26.11.1996 as a result of which a statement on the issues involved was made on behalf of the Ministry of Labour in both the Houses of Parliament on 28.11.1996 and an application was filed on behalf of the Ministry of Home Affairs on 29.11.1996 in the Supreme Court of India. The Apex Court passed an order on 4.12.1996, the main features of which are as under:—

(a) The industrial units which fail to relocate and simply close down their operations will pay six years' wages to their workmen as compensation as against one year's wages ordered earlier. This would be in addition to the compensation payable under Industrial disputes Act;

(b) The industries which fail to relocate and simply close down will be entitled to land use of the existing premises at par with what has been ordered in respect of industries which relocate (that is, in both cases the owners can retain maximum of 32% of the land for their use). As per the earlier judgement. The Industries which simply close down were entitled to 100% of the land;

(c) In Case of closure, the workmen availing of any residential facility provided to them by the industrial units would continue to be extended the same facility for a period of 1 ½ years or till such time owner pays a compensation of Rs. 20,000/-to the workmen; and

(d) The industries which relocate will allow their workmen to continue the occupation of the present residential accommodation till such time as alternative accommodation is provided to them at the re-located site.
